

Cornerstone Credit Union Bids Farewell to CEO & Appoints Successor

The Board of Directors of Cornerstone Credit Union wishes to announce the retirement of Chief Executive Officer Kevin Lukey after 21 years at the helm of Cornerstone Credit Union.

Kevin has been CEO since joining Cornerstone Credit Union in August 1996. Kevin has been instrumental in the development and success of Cornerstone Credit Union – now the 5th largest credit union in Saskatchewan, with over $1 billion in assets, serving over 25,000 members.

Kevin has spent 41 years in the credit union system and will retire effective October 20th. Cornerstone's Board President, Larry Malinowski comments, "On behalf of the board, I want to thank Kevin for his strong leadership and his contribution to building Cornerstone Credit Union for the past 21 years. Kevin has been an exceptional leader with remarkable passion for the credit union system. He is well respected by members, employees and his colleagues throughout the system. While we will truly miss Kevin, his wit and his inspiring leadership, we are excited for his new chapter and wish him all the best in his retirement."

Following Kevin's retirement, there will be a new face at the helm for Cornerstone Credit Union. After a robust national search and hiring process, the Board of Directors are pleased to announce the appointment of Doug Jones as the new CEO. Malinowski adds, "Doug is an excellent fit for Cornerstone – his skills, knowledge, experience and values will serve Cornerstone Credit Union well."

Doug Jones is no stranger to Cornerstone Credit Union as he joined the organization in 2012, and has served as the Vice President of Retail Services since then. Doug brings a wealth of experience to the new position as he has more than 29 years of industry experience with many years of senior management and executive leadership positions. Doug will assume the new role effective October 23, 2017.

"The Board of Directors looks forward to continued success for Cornerstone Credit Union under Doug's leadership. Doug and Kevin are working to ensure a seamless leadership transition so that Cornerstone Credit Union continues to focus on its members and provide world-class solutions," concluded Malinowski.
